INTRODUCTION

The Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court has issued an Annual Report for the past 20 years in an ongoing effort to provide taxpayers, litigants, counsel and government officials with current caseload data and information regarding the Court's operations. We are pleased to present the 2016 Annual Report for the Thirteenth Circuit Court.

For the first time in many years, the Court experienced a decline in both the criminal and civil caseloads. However, while the overall criminal caseload decreased, the number of sentencing for drug-related matters increased from 2015. Heroin and methamphetamine remained the most prevalent drugs. Fortunately, in 2016, a grant from the State Court Administrator's Office allowed for the creation of a local drug recovery court. Offenders who plead guilty to felonies have the opportunity to get their charges reduced after intensive supervisory and long term probation. The goal of the drug court is to provide addicts with intensive treatment, to break the cycle of incarceration, to reduce recidivism and ultimately to make them productive citizens in our community.

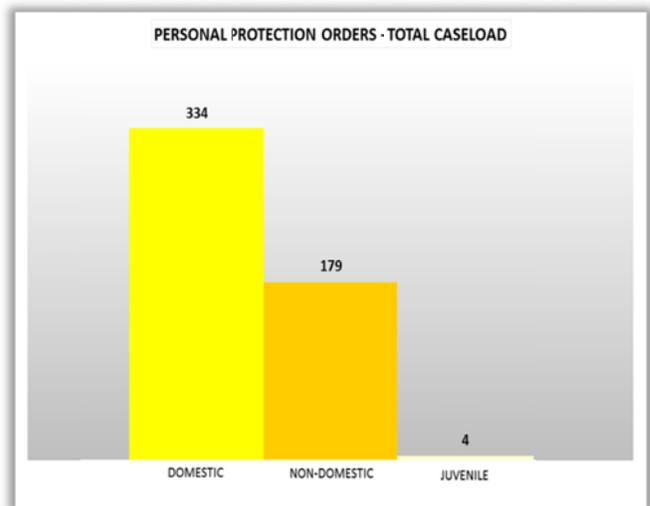

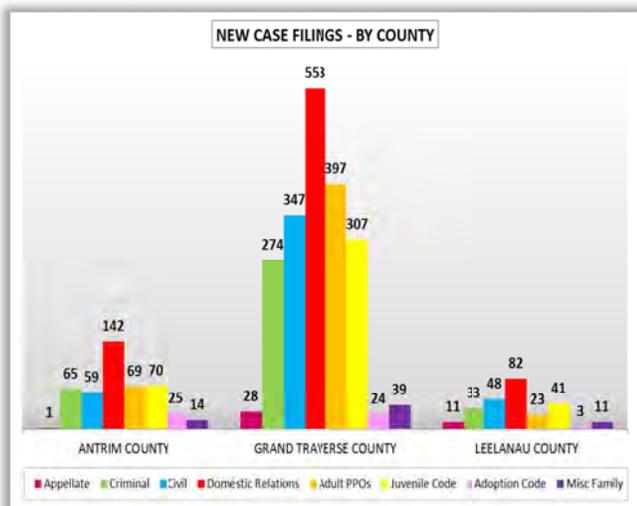

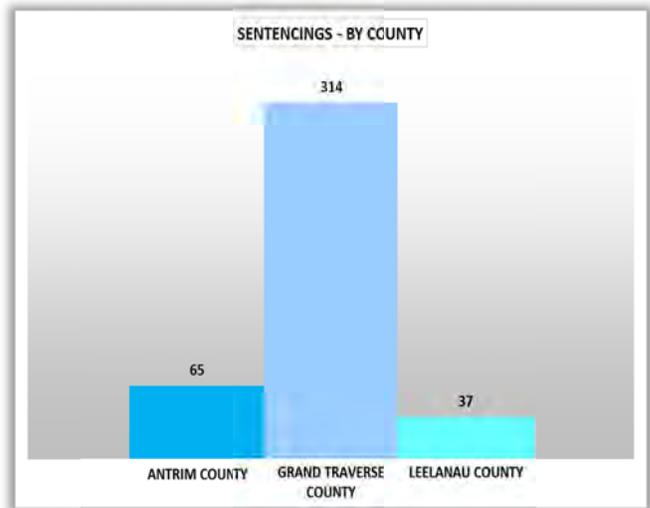

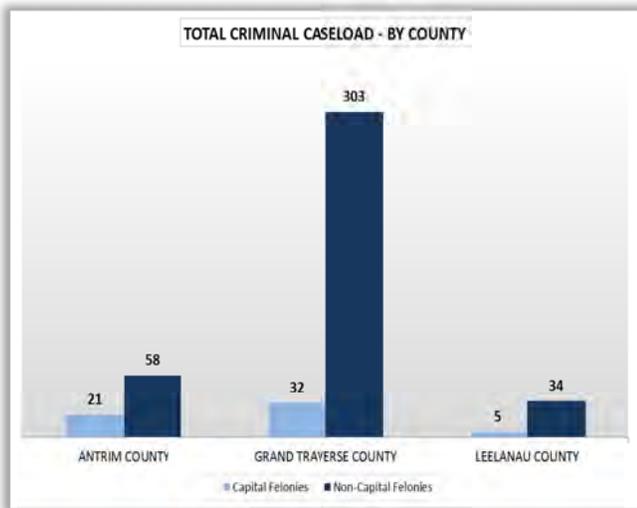

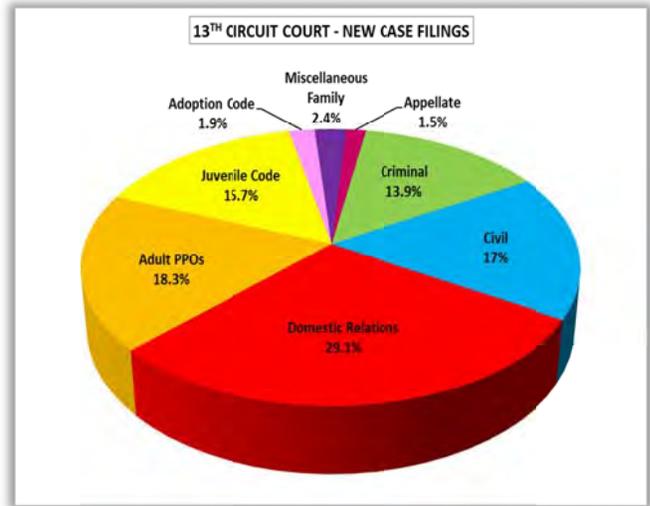

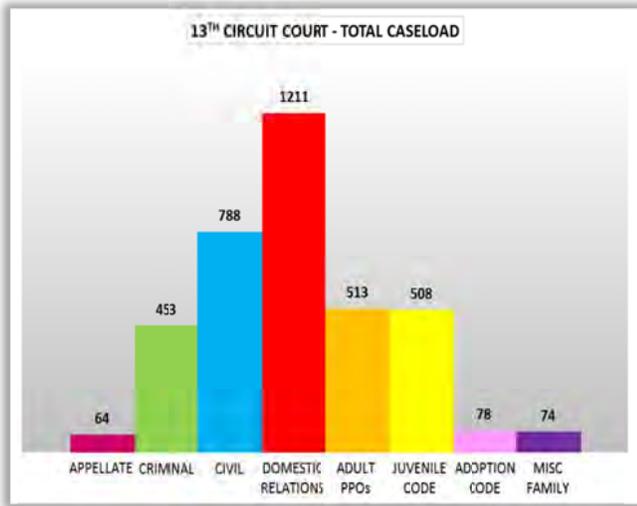

Otherwise, the Court continued to resolve its cases well within the Supreme Court's mandated time disposition guidelines and was aided in this endeavor by a hardworking and highly efficient staff, the Domestic Relations and Juvenile Referees and the family court divisions. Alternative dispute resolution, using facilitative mediators and the Conflict Resolution Service, also assisted in the resolution of cases throughout the past year. As a result, the Court presided over fewer jury trials than in 2015.

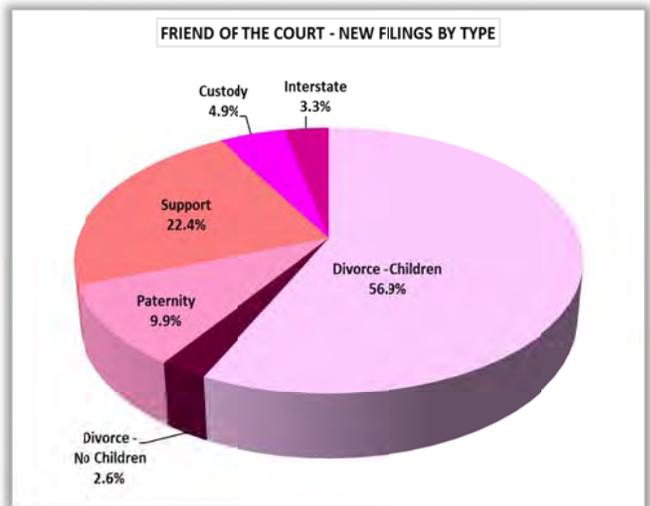

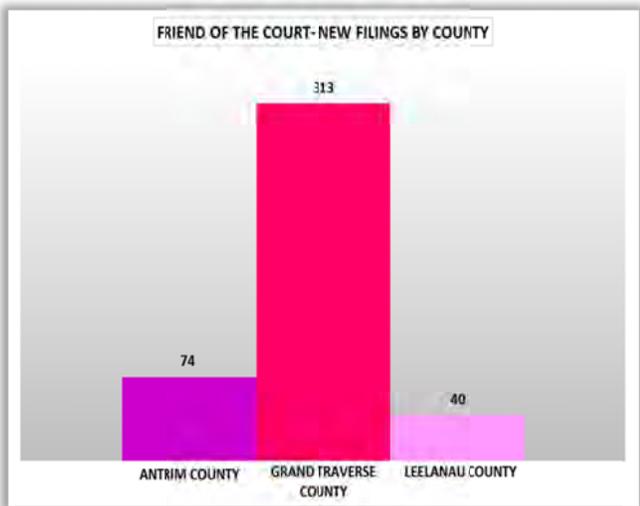

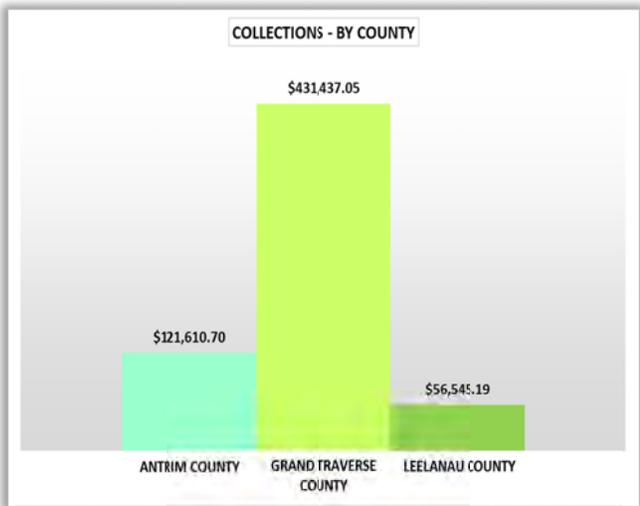

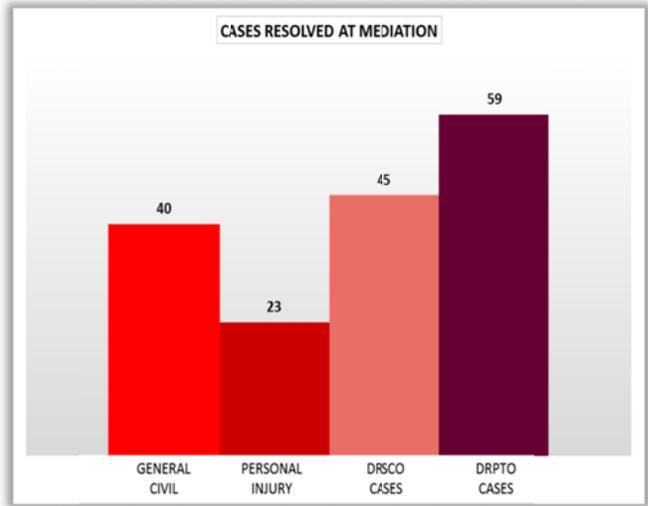

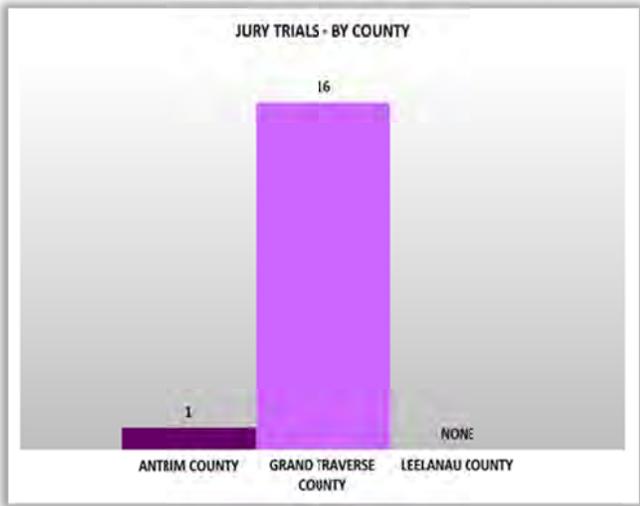

In 2016, the Grand Traverse County Commissioners continued to evaluate proposals for resolving the outstanding pension debt obligation and we remain hopeful that rational business decisions can still be made by those entrusted with the public welfare. To the Antrim, Grand Traverse and Leelanau County Commissioners, we wish to express our appreciation for your service and your support.

The Court's website, located at www.13thcircuitcourt.org, provides a variety of information (on topics such as jury duty, motion practice, and the alternative resolution process), commonly used forms for download and links to assist the public and legal community. Further, the Court's civil jury verdict summaries are accessible through the website. Jury verdict summaries are available from 1995 through the present. Comments regarding how the Court may improve its services are always welcome and we look forward to hearing from you.

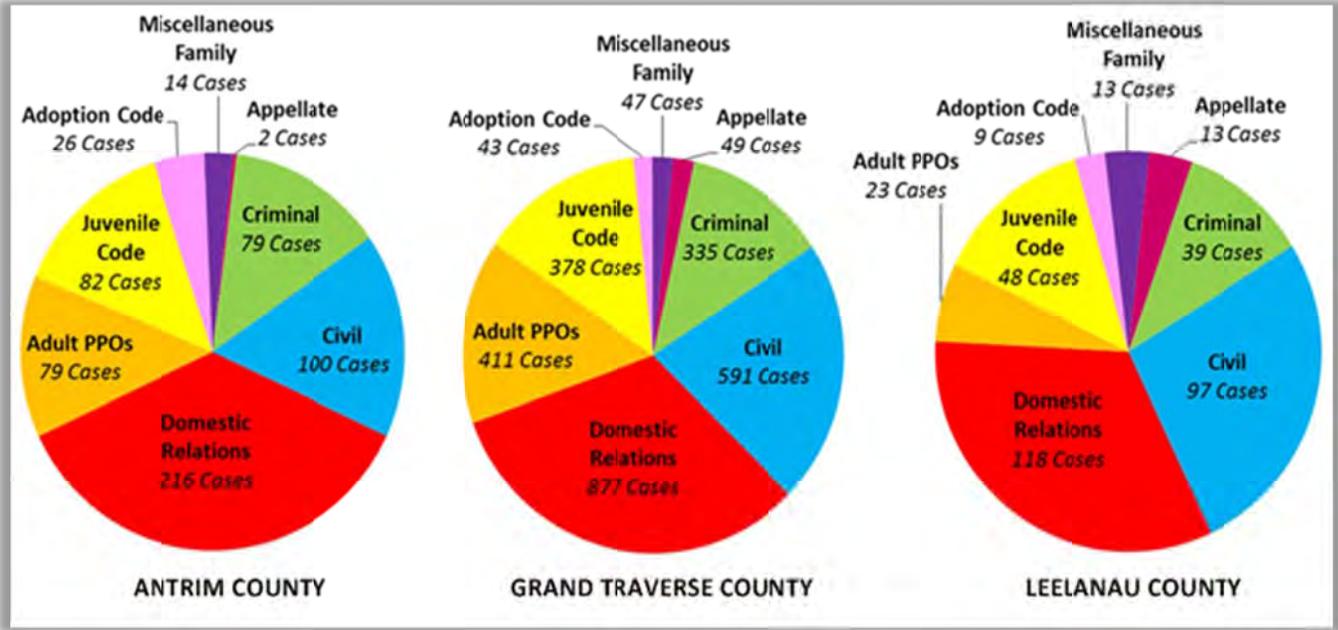

AT A GLANCE: 2016

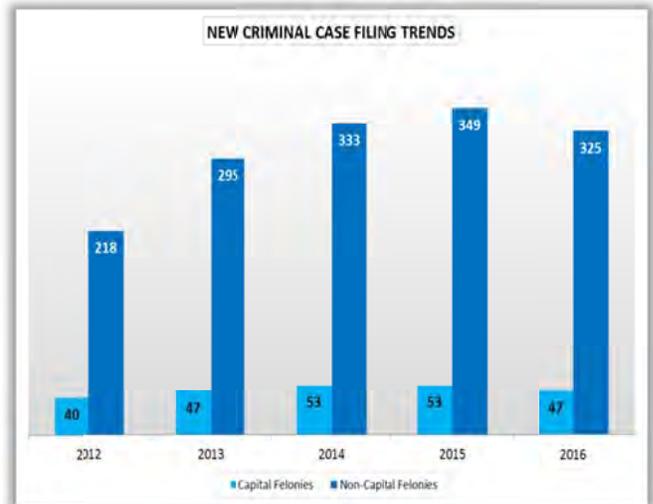

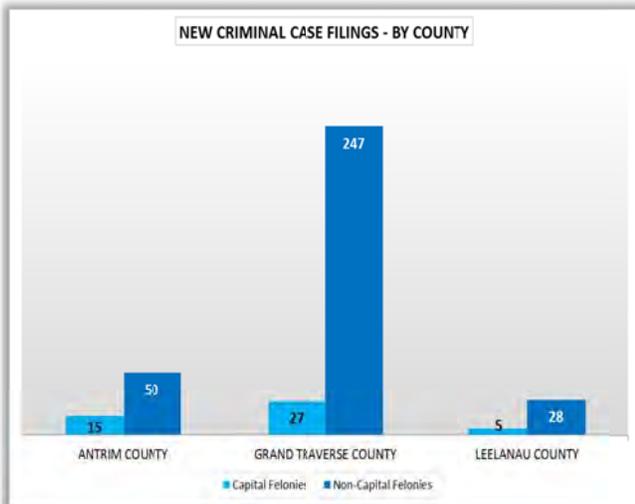

CASE MANAGEMENT

The Circuit Court follows the mandated time schedule as delineated in the Michigan Court Rules and Administrative Orders to efficiently manage and dispose of its cases. Once a new case has been opened, the Court issues a Scheduling Order providing time guidelines for the processing of the case and establishing dates when future actions should begin or be completed with regard to the case. The primary goal of the Court's administrative staff is to ensure that cases are kept current and the docket remains up-to-date. The following chart demonstrates the 2016 total caseload by category for each county.

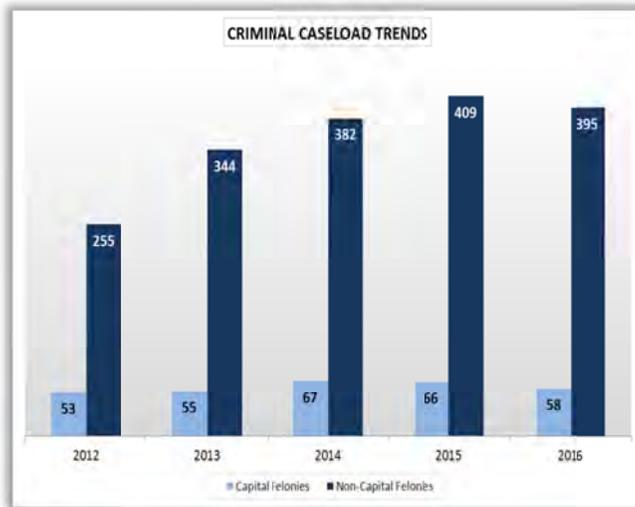

CRIMINAL CASELOAD NEW CASE FILINGS

Capital felonies are cases in which a life sentence is possible and a larger number of peremptory jury challenges are provided during trial. In non-capital felony cases, a defendant is subject to prison time, but generally for a period less than life. In 2016, the number of newly filed capital and non-capital felony cases decreased in the Thirteenth Circuit. Conversely, the State of Michigan saw an increase the number of newly filed non-capital felony cases and a decrease in the number of newly filed capital felony cases.

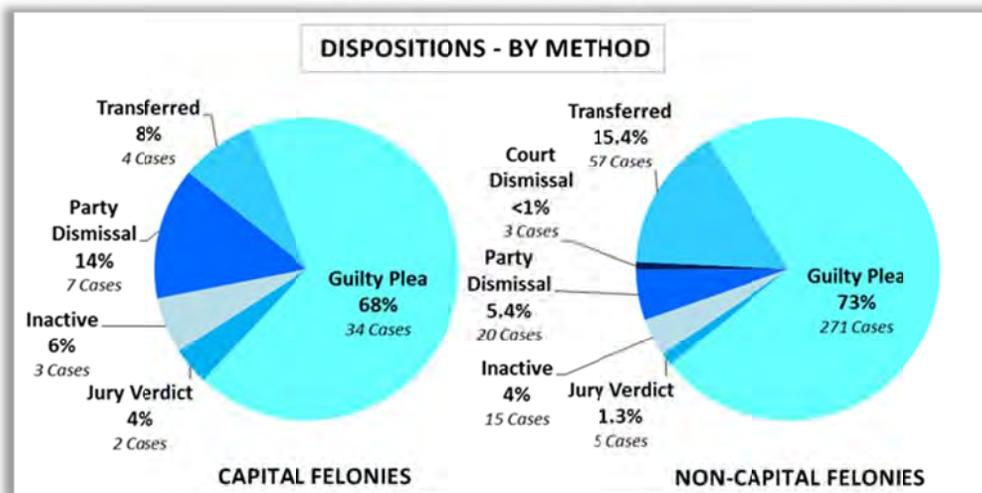

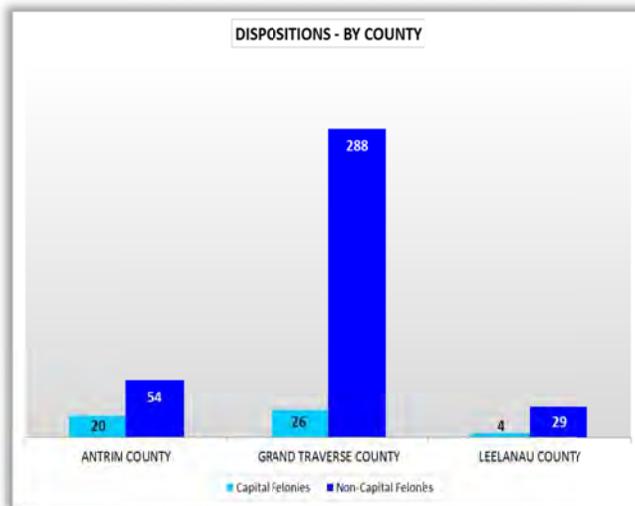

TOTAL CASELOAD

The Circuit Court's total caseload consists of cases that were still pending when the year began, cases that were re-opened, and all newly filed cases. In 2016, the Thirteenth Circuit Court's total criminal caseload for both capital felonies and non-capital felonies decreased. The State of Michigan's total caseload for capital felonies decreased, while the total caseload for non-capital felonies increased.

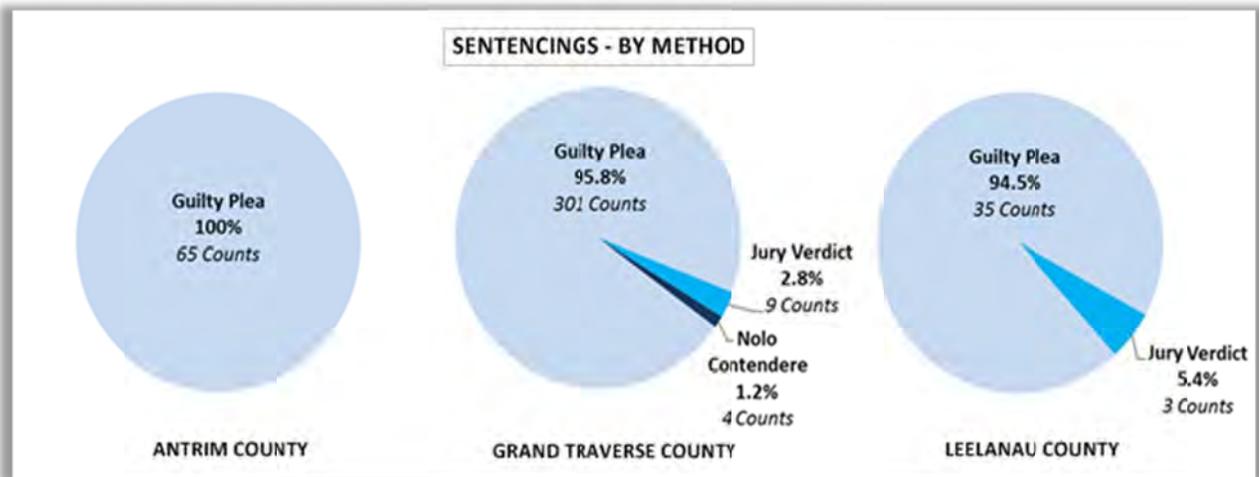

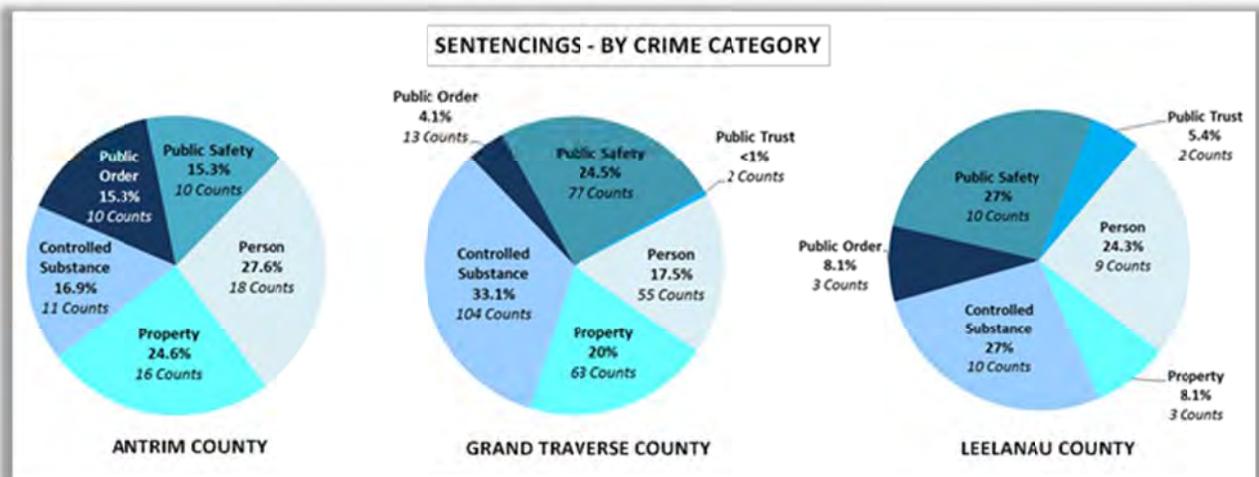

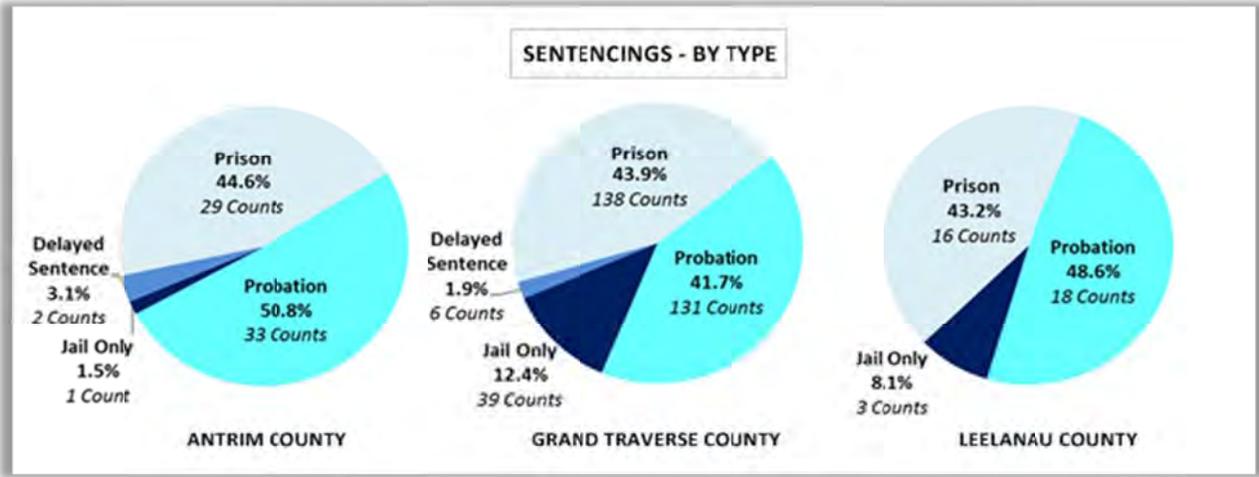

DISPOSITIONS

In 2016, the Court disposed of 421 criminal cases. Guilty pleas resulted in the greatest number of dispositions, with the Court receiving 54 guilty pleas in Antrim County, 232 in Grand Traverse County and 19 in Leelanau County.

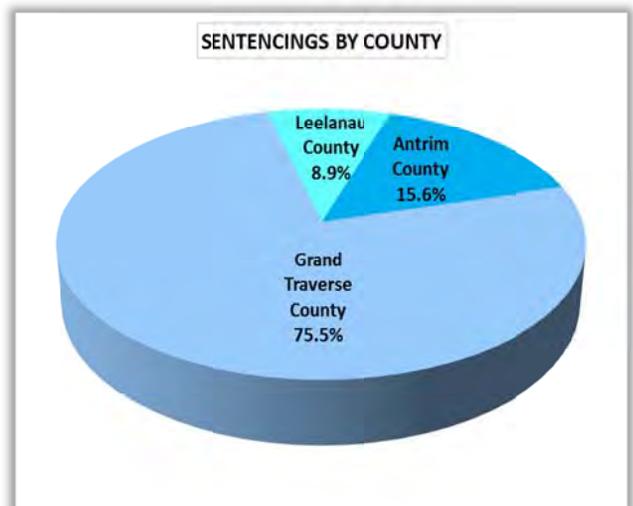

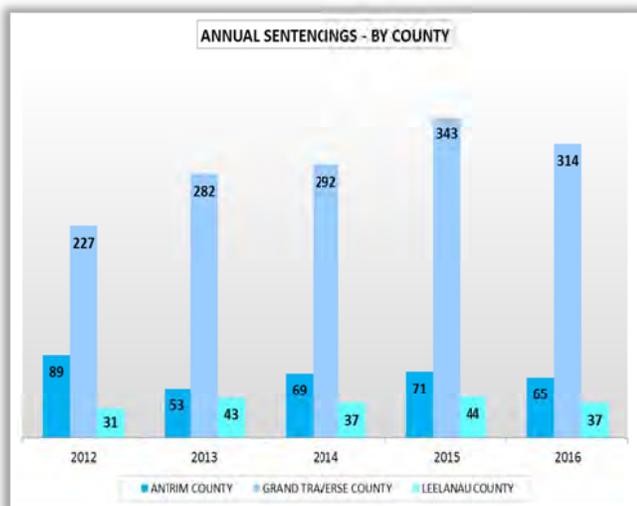

Criminal sentencing occurs after the final disposition in a case. Once there is a guilty verdict or the defendant pleads, the case is referred to the Department of Corrections/Probation Department for a Pre-Sentence Investigation Report (PSIR). As part of the PSIR process, the Department of Corrections/Probation Department meets with and interviews a defendant prior to generating his or her PSIR, which results in a delay between the disposition in a case and the date a defendant is sentenced. Guilty defendants can receive sentences including commitment to prison or jail, probation, costs and fines, delayed sentence or a combination of penalties. The Court may delay a defendant's sentence in order to give the defendant an opportunity to prove to the Court his or her eligibility for probation or other leniency compatible with the ends of justice and rehabilitation of the defendant. Sentences may be delayed for crimes except murder, treason, armed robbery, major controlled substance offenses and First and Third-Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct.

In 2016, the Court sentenced 320 defendants, issuing sentences on 416 total counts in 338 cases. There were more total sentencings than total cases and/or defendants because certain defendants were charged with several counts in a single case and some defendants were charged in multiple cases. The following table displays sentencing and re-sentencing dispositions for 2016 by crime category and case type.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS–PROBATION & PAROLE

As employees of the Michigan Department of Corrections (MDOC) assigned to the local courts, staff supervise convicted offenders residing within the Thirteenth Circuit Court's jurisdiction. The Probation and Parole staff maintain close working relations with local court personnel, law enforcement, Community Corrections and many other area partners to ensure offenders are well supervised and to enhance the potential success of MDOC clients. Each case is individually supervised to assure public safety and compliance with the Court's orders. Supervision is achieved through a community collaborative approach which includes office and field contacts, appropriate treatment referrals, substance abuse screening and a variety of electronic monitoring options.

The Probation Department and Michigan Department of Corrections Parole Department experienced some staff changes during 2016. After adding some new faces to the team, the Department was fully staffed with nine agents and three secretaries covering the three-county area.

The Department of Corrections and Probation Department's caseload averaged 464 persons per month for 2016, with approximately 80 per month in Antrim County, 346 per month in Grand Traverse County and 38 per month in Leelanau County. In addition to supervision of MDOC clients, Probation and Parole staff members complete a PSIR for each Circuit Court conviction, as well as supplemental reports for formal violations. The PSIR includes the scoring of Sentencing Guidelines and a detailed summary of the individual's history including economic and social background, prior criminal record, current offense details and any victim impact statements. The PSIRs are used by the Judges as a tool to assist in determining the appropriate sentence for the crime and for the individual offender. In 2016, 279 new PSIRs (51 for Antrim County, 209 for Grand Traverse County and 19 for Leelanau County) were compiled for the Thirteenth Circuit Court.

The General Civil category includes business claims, condemnation, employment discrimination, environment, forfeiture claims, housing and real estate, contracts, labor relations, antitrust, franchising and trade regulation, corporate receivership and any miscellaneous/general civil. The Automobile Negligence category includes property damage, no-fault insurance and personal injury. NEW CASE FILINGS

The following pie charts depict the types of new cases filed in 2016 in Antrim County, Grand Traverse County and Leelanau County. The number and types of new cases that are filed annually vary by location.

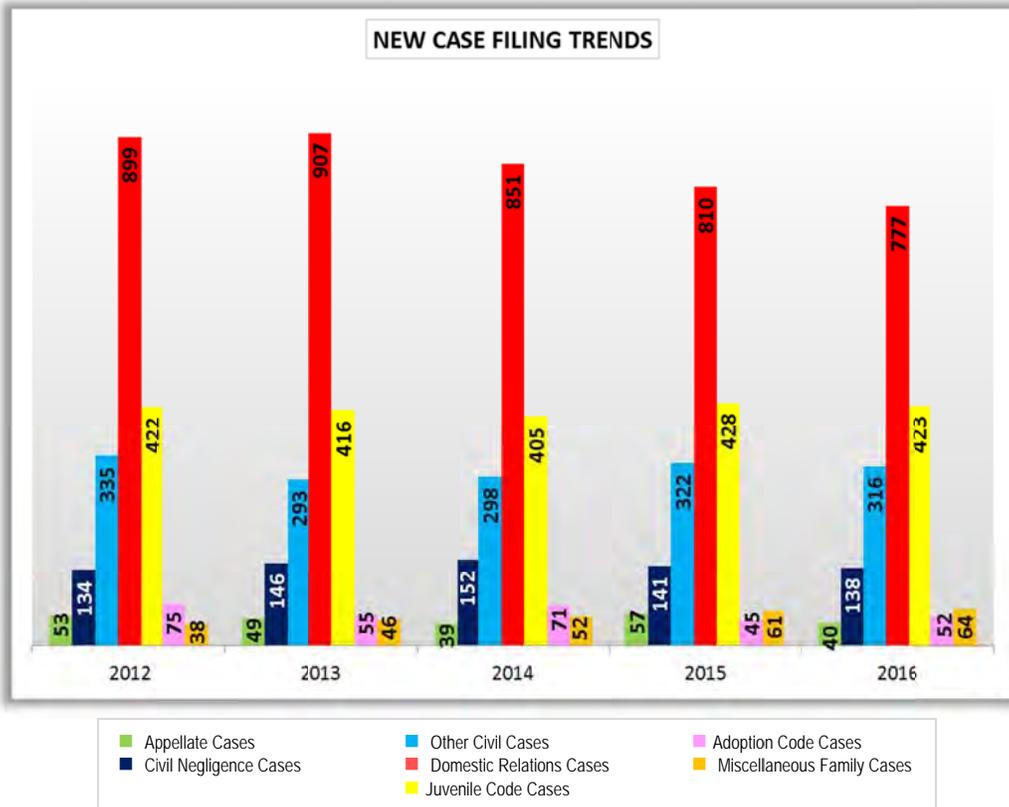

GRAND TRAVERSE COUNTY

LEELANAU COUNTY

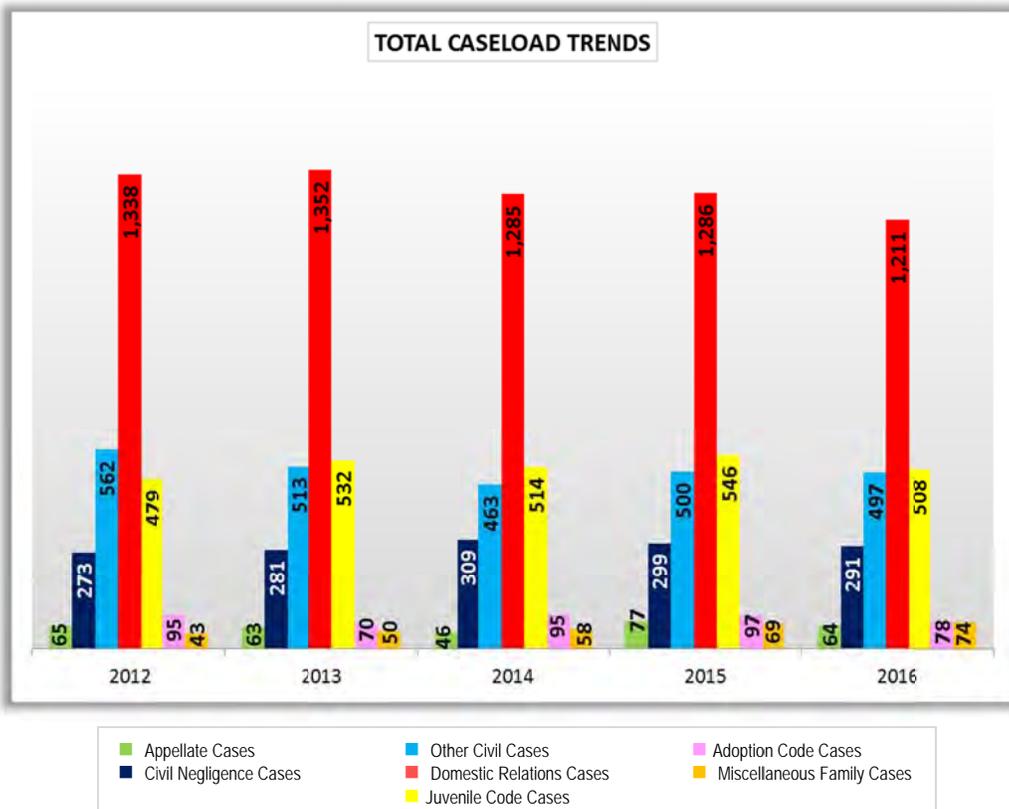

The following chart depicts the annual new case filings for the Thirteenth Circuit Court over the previous 5 years. The State of Michigan saw an increase in new filings for civil negligence and adoption code cases and decreased in all remaining categories.

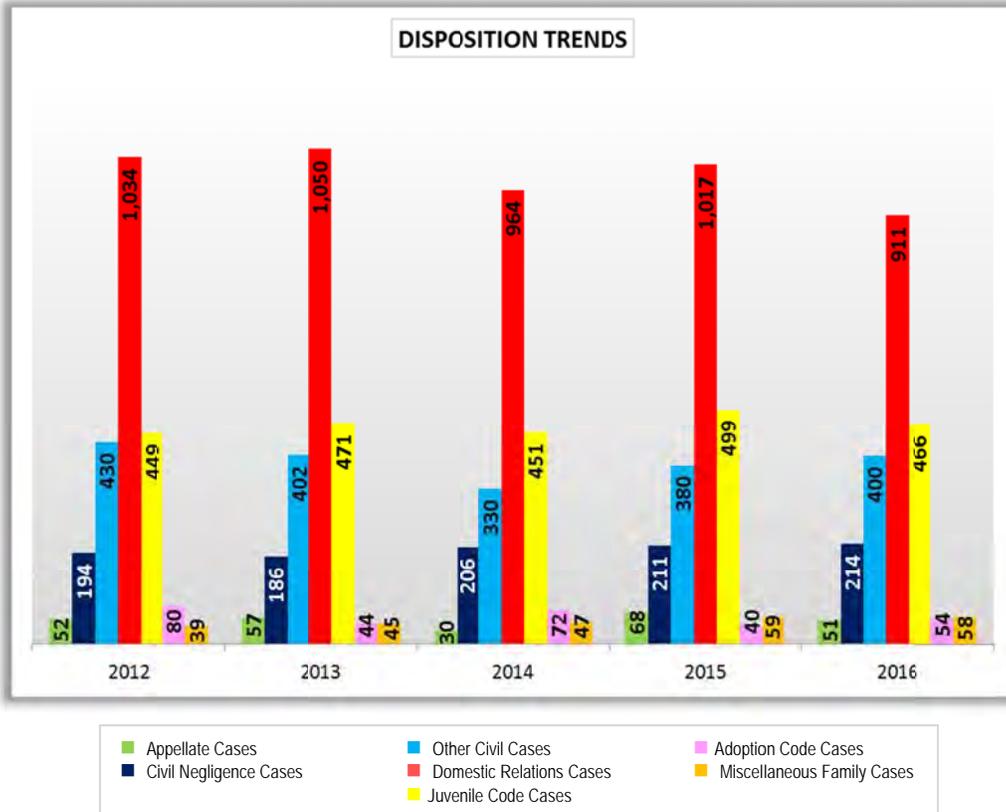

TOTAL CASELOAD

The Court's total caseload consists of cases that begin the year pending, newly filed cases and cases that have been reopened during the year. The State of Michigan's total caseload increased for civil negligence and adoption code cases, but decreased for appellate, general civil, domestic relations, juvenile code and miscellaneous family cases.

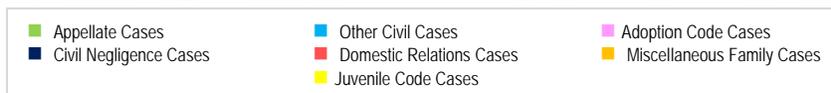

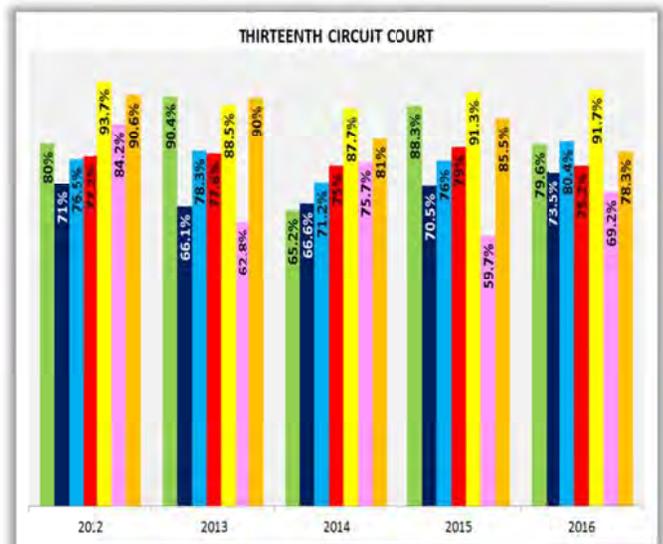

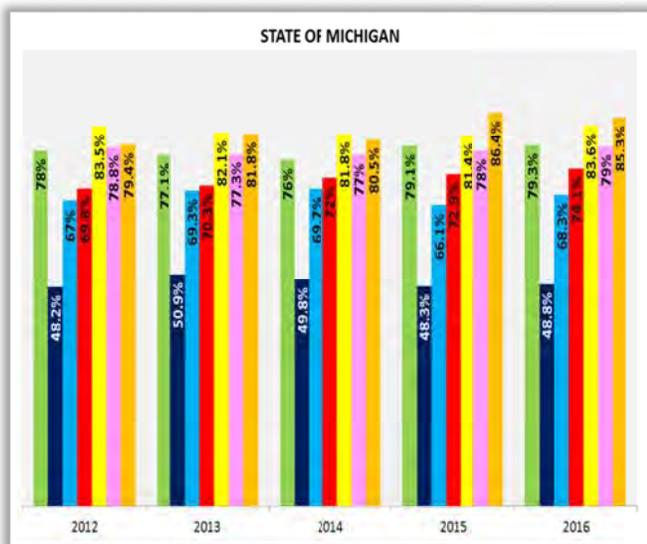

DISPOSITIONS

Annual disposition percentages are calculated by dividing the categories' total dispositions by the same categories' total caseload. There is typically a gap period between the time a new case is filed and when that case is disposed of by the Court; therefore, disposition percentages naturally fluctuate above and below 100%. Disposition percentages are representative of case-flow management and indicate the extent to which a court is attending to its total caseload.

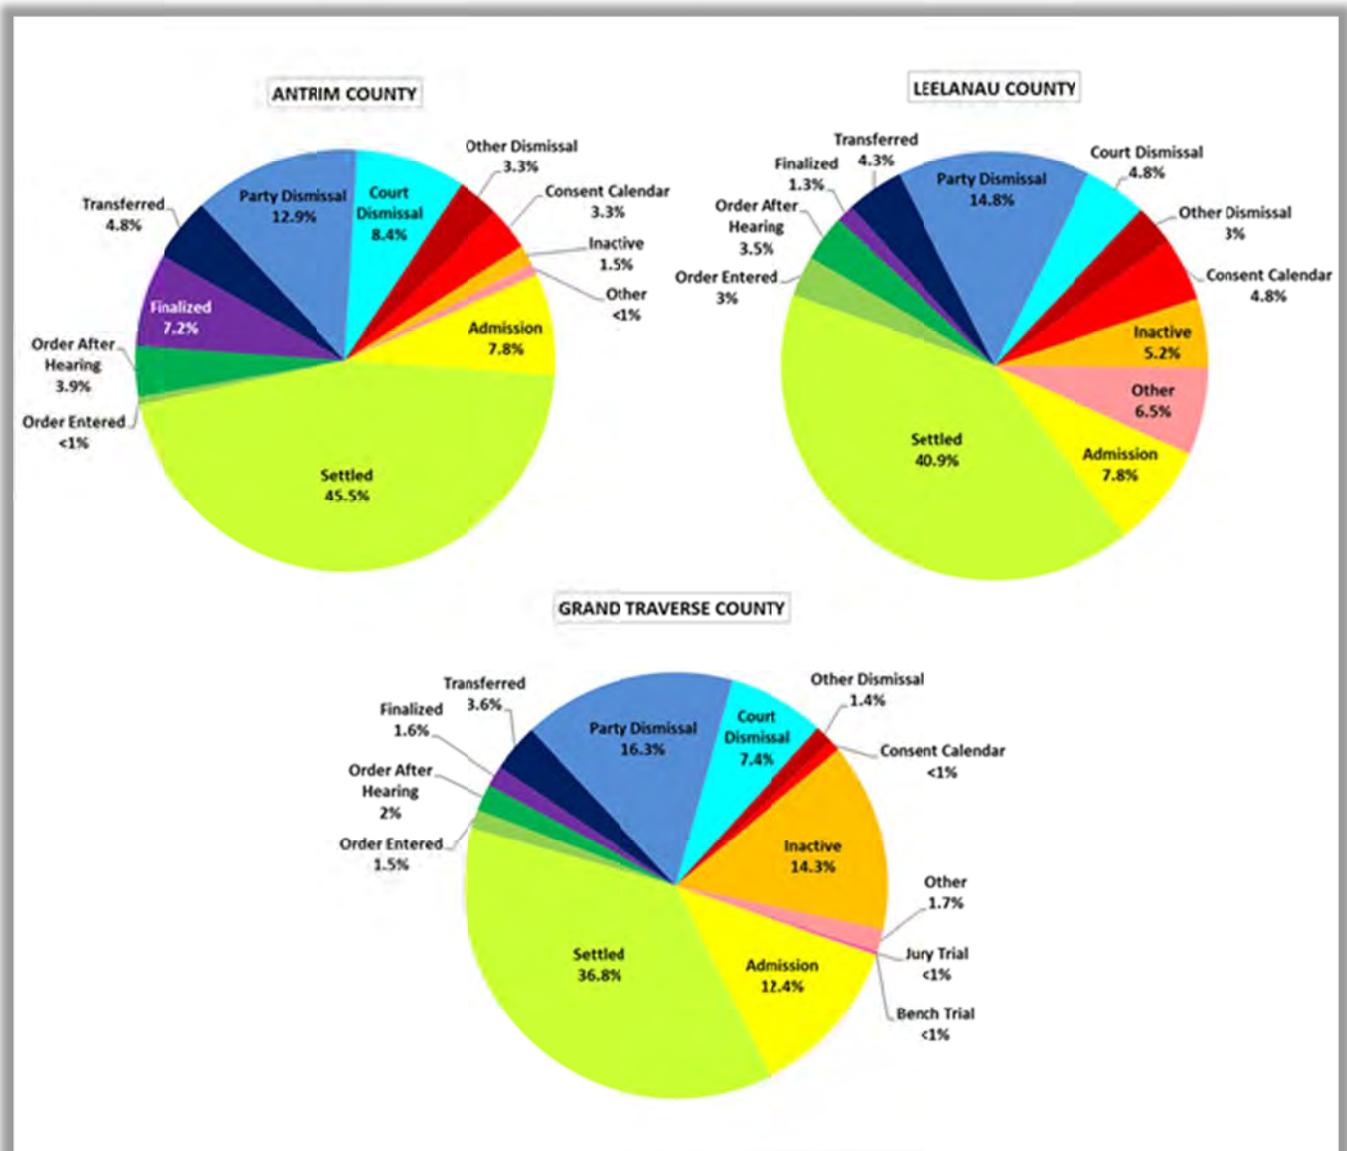

The charts below compare the disposition rates, by percentage, for the State of Michigan and the Thirteenth Circuit Court over the previous 5 years. On average, the Thirteenth Circuit Court disposes of a larger percentage of cases than the State, however, in 2016, the disposition percentage for adoption code cases and miscellaneous family cases Statewide was greater than that of the Thirteenth Circuit Court.

The following charts compare disposition methods for appellate, civil, domestic relations, juvenile code, adoption code and miscellaneous family cases in 2016. The term "Settled" collectively includes cases that were defaulted, uncontested or settled.

PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDERS

NEW CASE FILINGS

In 2016, the Thirteenth Circuit Court received 493 new requests for personal protection orders (PPOs), which is a decrease from the 557 requests filed in 2015.

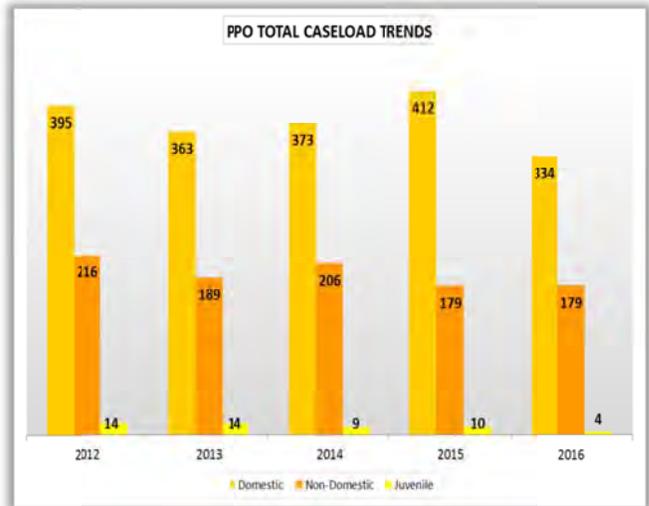

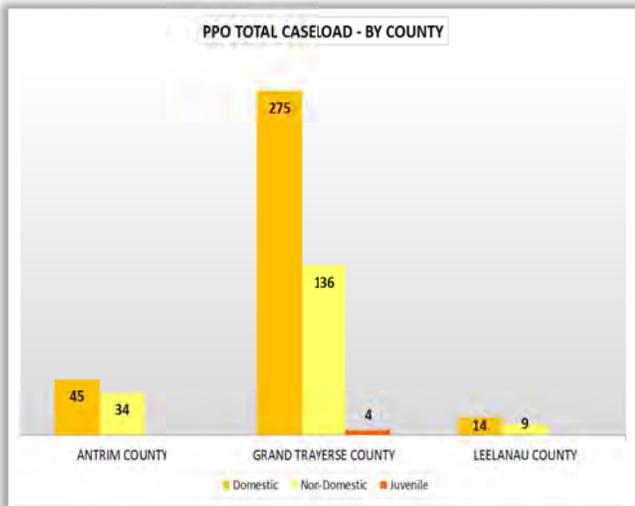

The chart below depicts personal protection order issuance trends for each county over the past 5 years.

ANTRIM COUNTY		GRAND TRAVERSE COUNTY		LEELANAU COUNTY

Light Green	Juvenile PPO Requests	Dark Orange	Juvenile PPO Requests	Light Blue	Non-Domestic PPOs Issued
Dark Green	Juvenile PPOs Issued	Red	Juvenile PPOs Issued

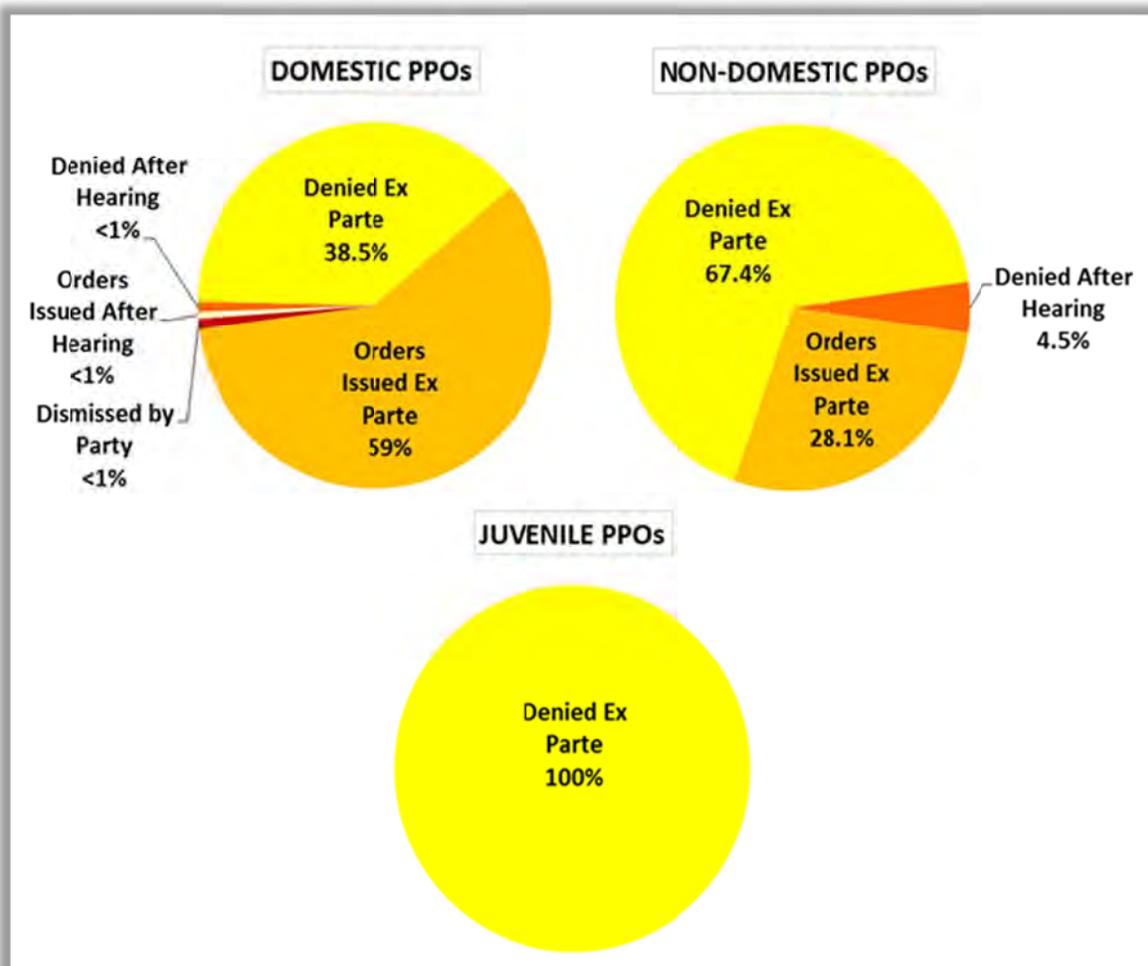

TOTAL CASELOAD

The following charts depict the total PPO caseload in 2016, by county, and recent trends in the total PPO caseload for the past 5 years. The total Domestic PPO and Juvenile PPO caseloads decreased in 2016, while the Non-Domestic PPO caseload remained static.

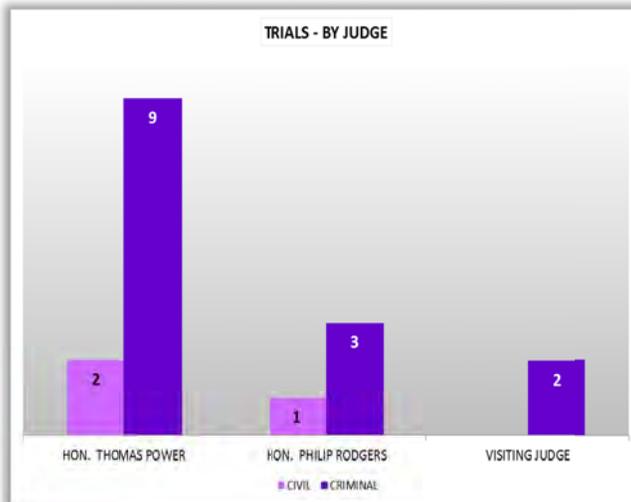

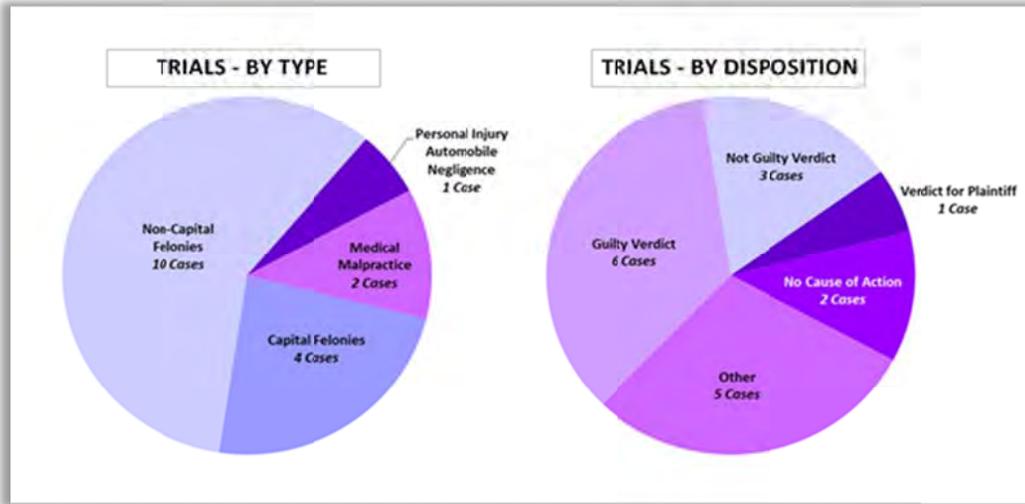

DISPOSITIONS

Personal protection orders can be disposed of in the following ways: the Court can issue an ex parte order granting or denying the PPO request, the Court may hold a hearing on the matter and either issue an order granting the PPO or issue an order denying the PPO, an order may be issued after a PPO request has been denied, the case may be transferred, or the request may be dismissed by requesting party. The pie charts below illustrate the methods used to dispose of personal protection order actions in 2016.

JURY TRIALS

To qualify to serve as a juror, an individual must be a United States citizen, at least 18 years of age, a resident of the county issuing the summons, conversant in the English language, physically and mentally able to carry out the functions of a juror and cannot have committed a felony. The process for selecting potential jurors begins with the Secretary of State providing a list of eligible jurors to the county jury board. Antrim, Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties each have individual 3-member jury boards, appointed by that County's Board of Commissioners, with members serving 6-year terms. The jury boards then send juror questionnaires to the prospective jurors in their respective counties. Once the questionnaires are returned, the jury board randomly selects prospective jurors for their Circuit Court, District Court and Probate Court cases.

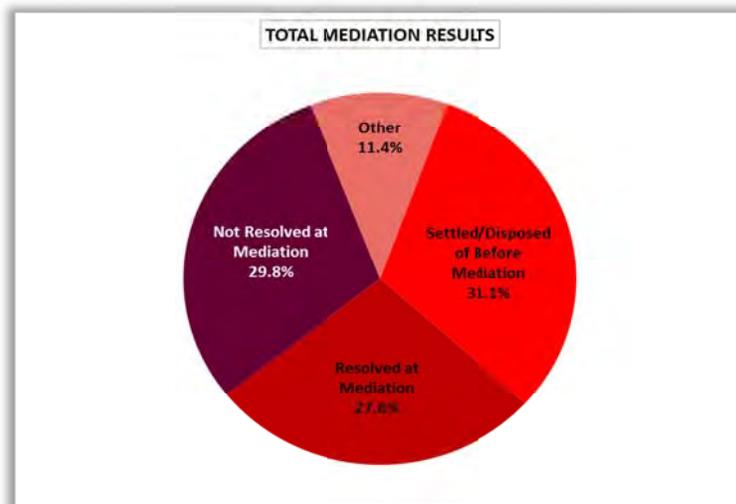

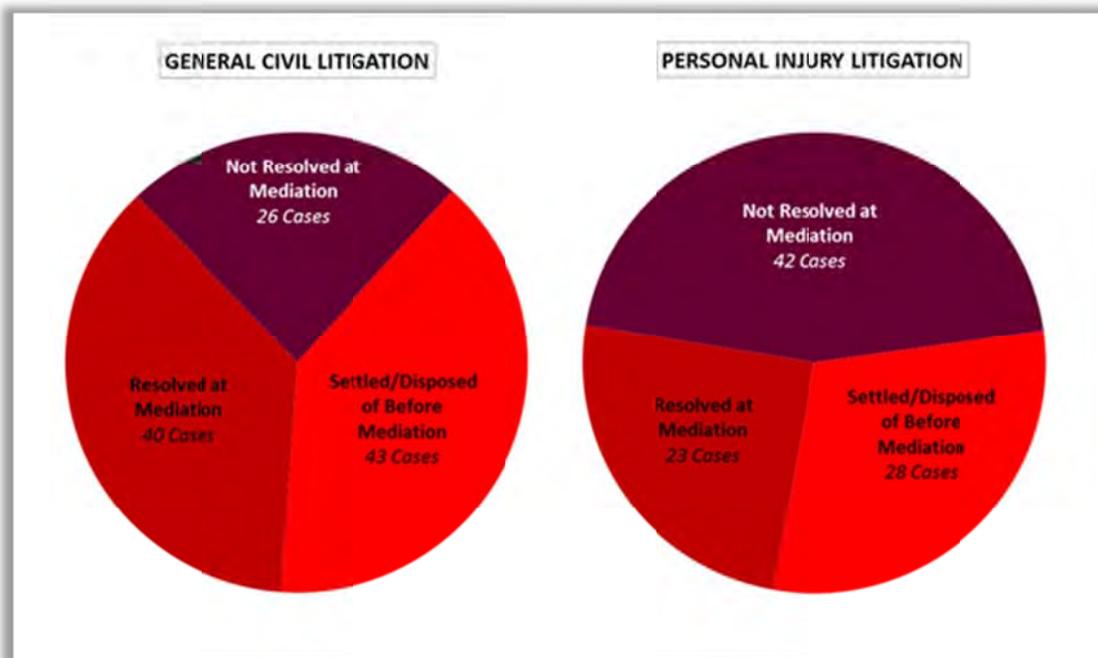

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is any process designed to resolve a legal dispute in the place of court adjudication. ADR includes facilitative mediation, domestic relations mediation, and settlement conferences. ADR may also include case evaluation, a non-binding process in which a panel of experienced attorneys assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of the parties' legal positions and assign a value to the case. Party litigants who wish to pursue case evaluation are permitted to arrange the proceedings themselves or use the offer of judgment provision pursuant to MCR 2.405.

All civil cases are subject to the ADR process unless otherwise provided by statute or court rule. ADR helps reduce costs to taxpayers due to a reduction in the overall need for jurors, compensation for lay and expert witnesses and the need for additional judges and/or courtrooms.

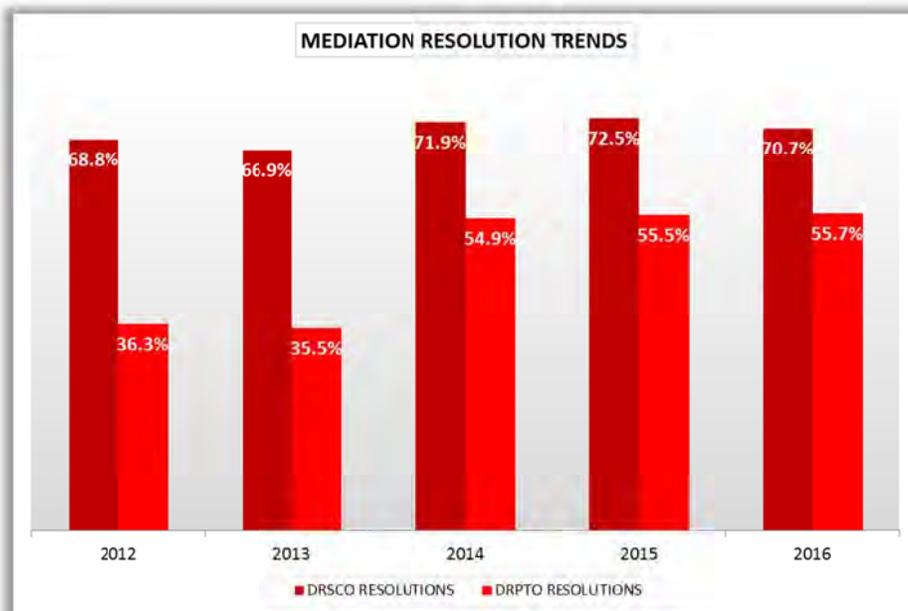

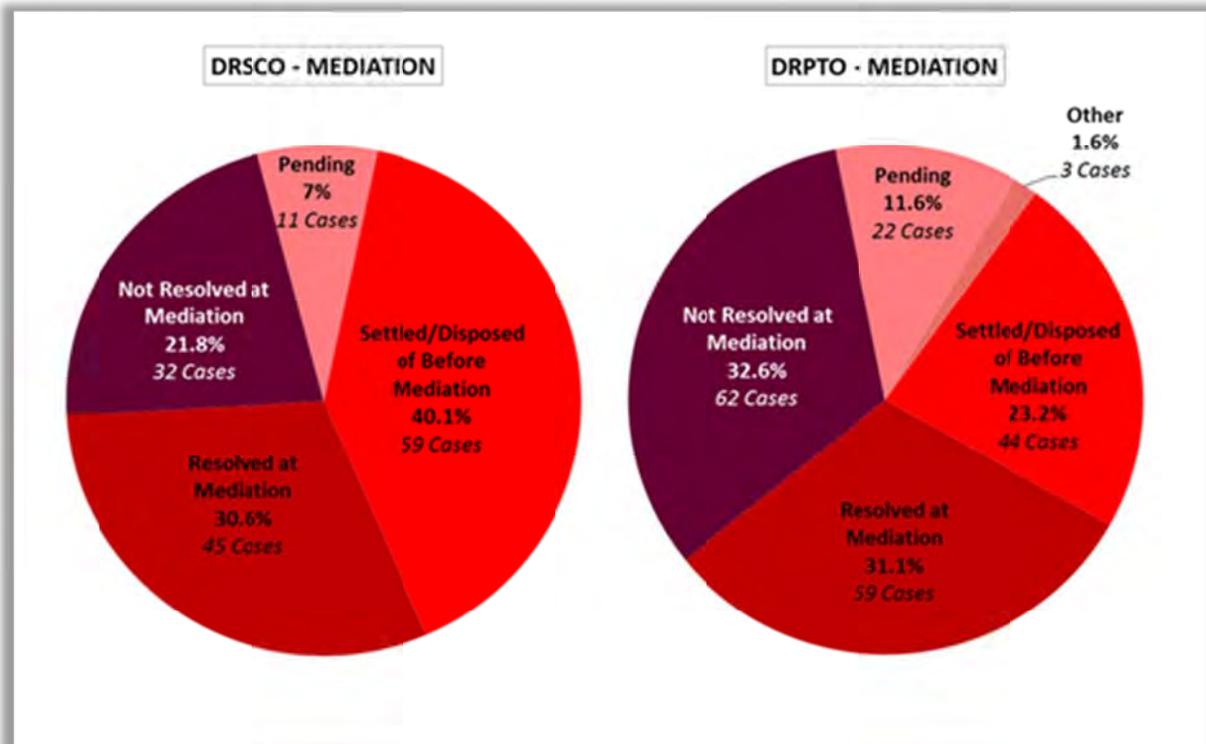

CIVIL FACILITATIVE MEDIATION

Facilitative mediation is an alternative dispute resolution process in which a neutral third party facilitates confidential communications between the parties in an attempt to help them reach a mutually agreeable resolution. In mediation, solutions are generated by the parties; whereas in litigation, the resolution of a conflict is imposed upon the parties by the Court. In 2016, 111 General Civil cases and 117 Personal Injury cases were ordered into mediation, with 157 cases actually being mediated. The Court selected a mediator for the parties in 16 cases.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS FACILITATIVE MEDIATION

In 2016, 337 cases were ordered to facilitative mediation via a Domestic Relations Scheduling Conference Order (DRSCO) or a Domestic Relations Pre-Trial Order (DRPTO). DRSCOs are generated by the Court when a divorce matter is filed, whereas DRPTOs can be generated either before or after a Judgment of Divorce has been entered when there are child related issues, such as paternity, support, custody, and UIFSA registration. In 2016, the Court selected a mediator for the parties in 75 cases.

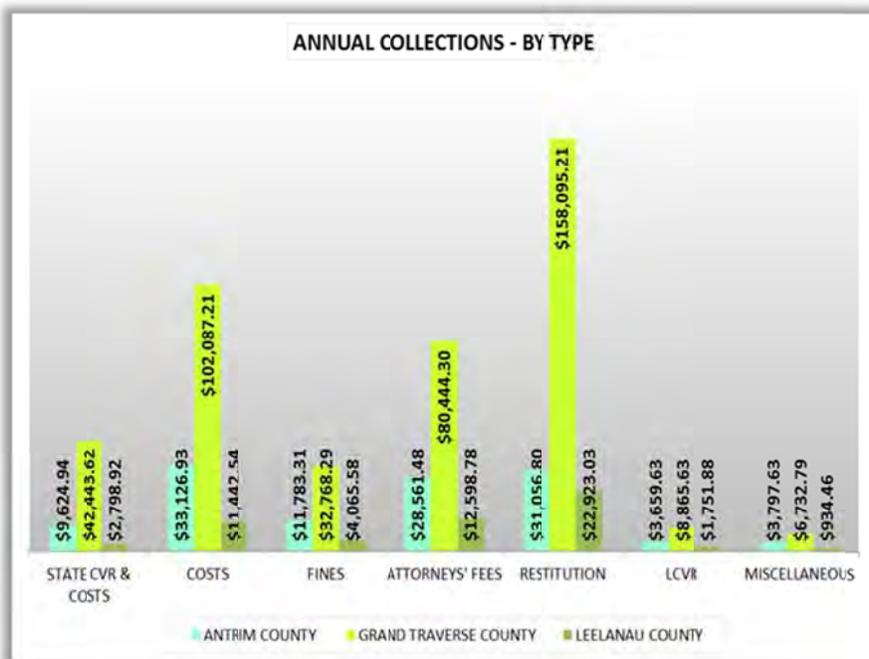

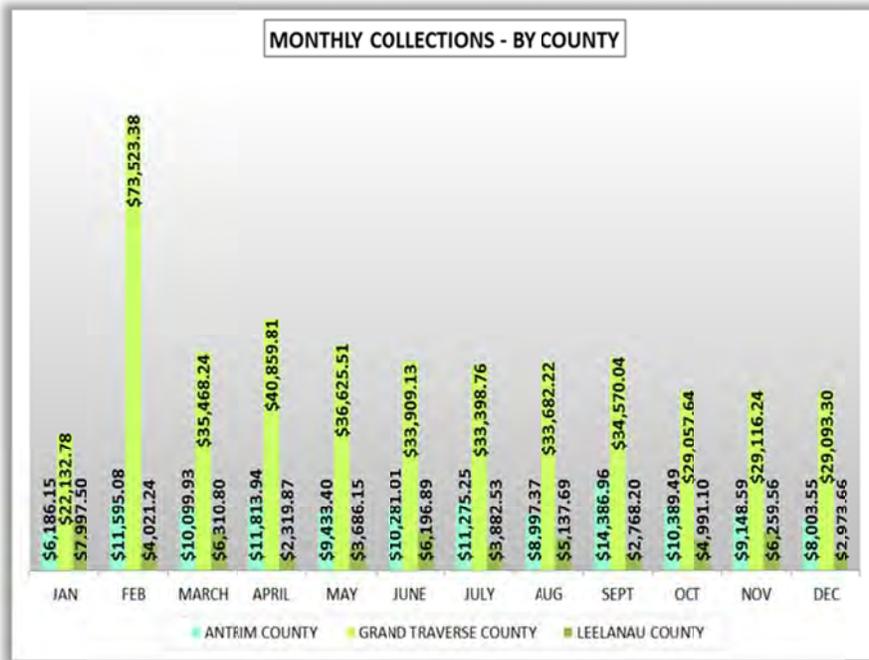

COURT FINANCES

The Joint Judicial Commission, established pursuant to an Inter-County Operating Agreement, acts as a liaison for Antrim, Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties and the Courts in order to coordinate financial and administrative responsibilities between the Counties and Courts. Members of the Commission include the Circuit Court Judges, Court Administrator, board chairperson, chairperson for the Finance/Ways and Means Committee, County Administrator/Coordinator and the Chief Administrative Fiscal Officers in Antrim, Grand Traverse and Leelanau Counties.

COLLECTIONS

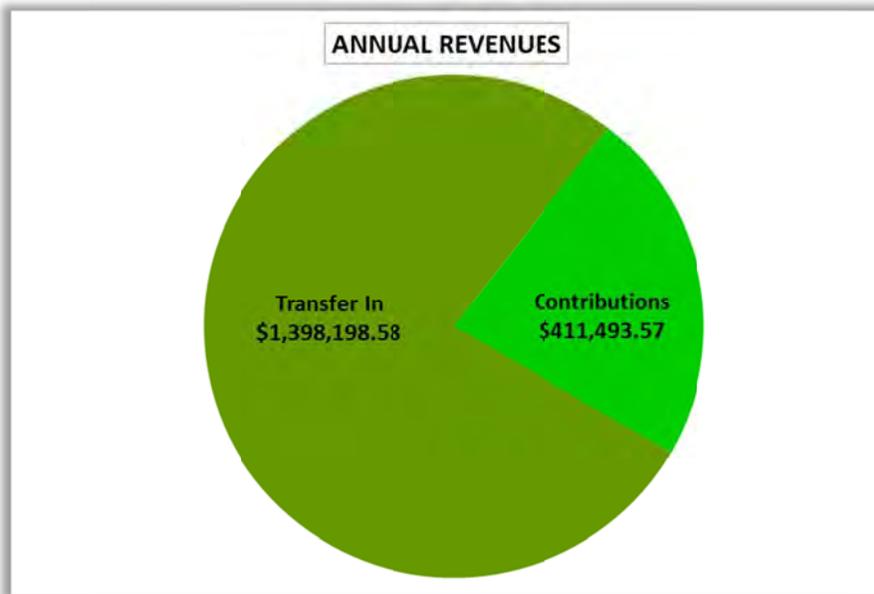

The Court collects fines, costs, court-appointed attorneys' fees, restitution and crime victim fund payments from convicted felons. The funds collected are used to help support the public libraries, assist in defraying the costs of providing court-appointed counsel for indigent defendants and serve as reimbursement to crime victims for losses they may have suffered.

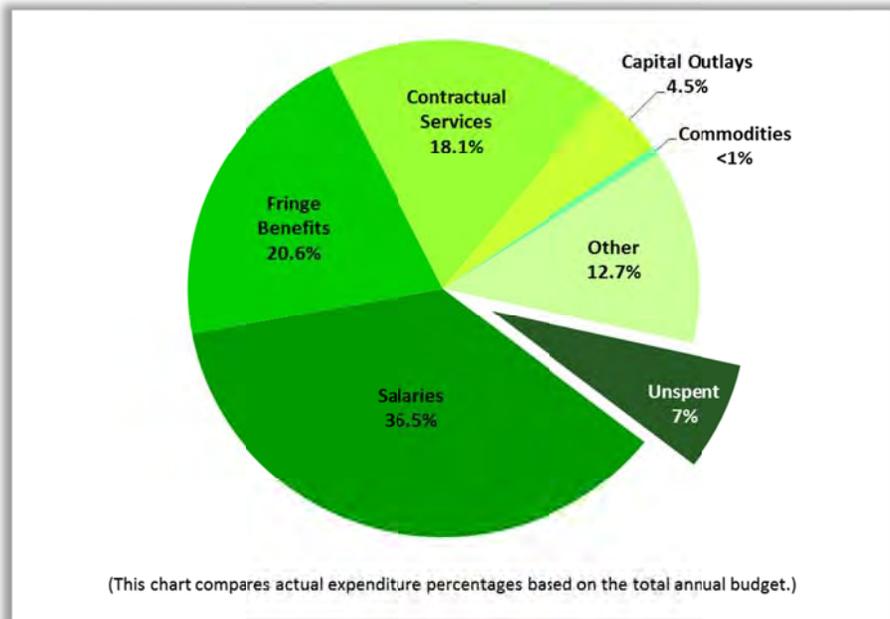

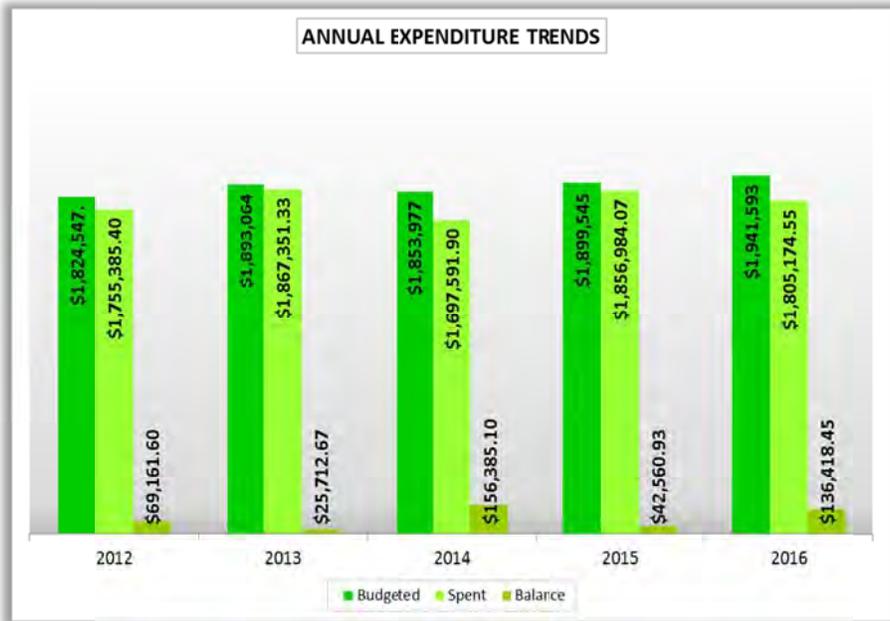

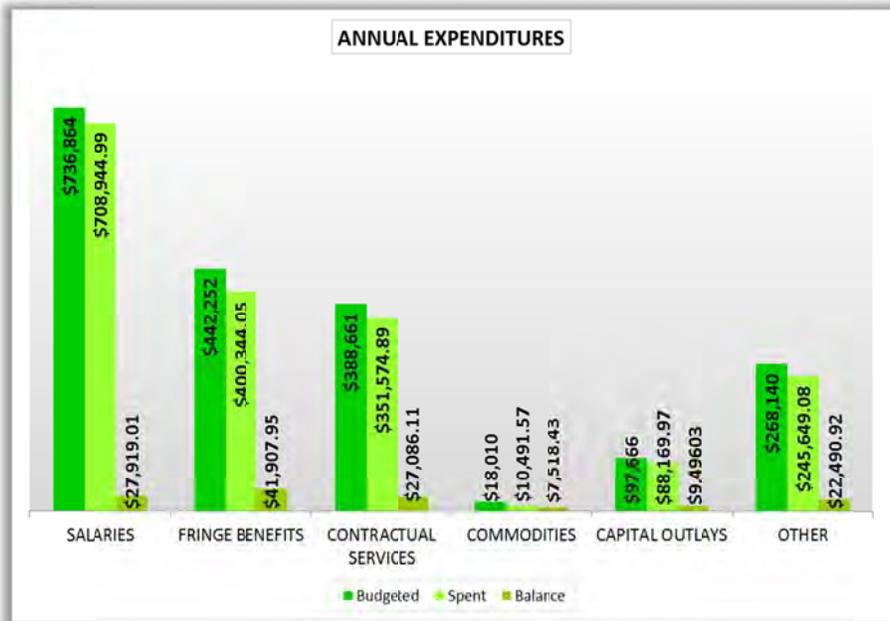

REVENUES & EXPENDITURES

Each county within the Thirteenth Circuit maintains its own budget and is responsible for the processing, auditing, verification and payment of operating expenses. Grand Traverse County oversees the Circuit Court Operating Fund, which pays for 'cost-shared' expenses, such as salaries, fringe benefits, office space, computer data processing, office supplies and other capital expenditures. Each individual county separately pays its 'cost-direct' expenses, like court-appointed attorneys' fees, jury fees, witness fees, transcript fees and courthouse security. Additional revenue comes from filing fees, court costs assessed by the County Clerks' Offices and the State of Michigan.

Expenditures are divided into 6 categories: (1) salaries for judicial, administrative and Friend of the Court staffs; (2) fringe benefits for judicial and administrative staffs, including FICA; (3) contractual services, including payments for defense counsel, transcripts, juror compensation, juror mileage, interpreters, professional services and other items necessary for administration and operation of the Courts; (4) commodities such as postage and office supplies; (5) capital outlays including legal reference material, office equipment and office furniture; and (6) other expenses like equipment rentals, printing, utilities, law books, continuing education and liability insurance.

FRIEND OF THE COURT

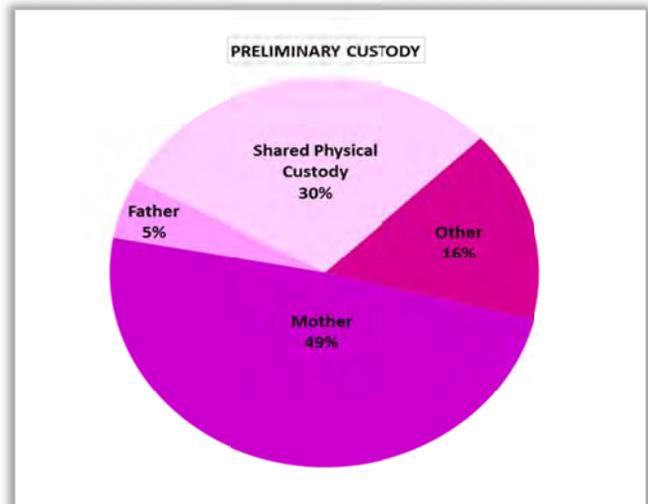

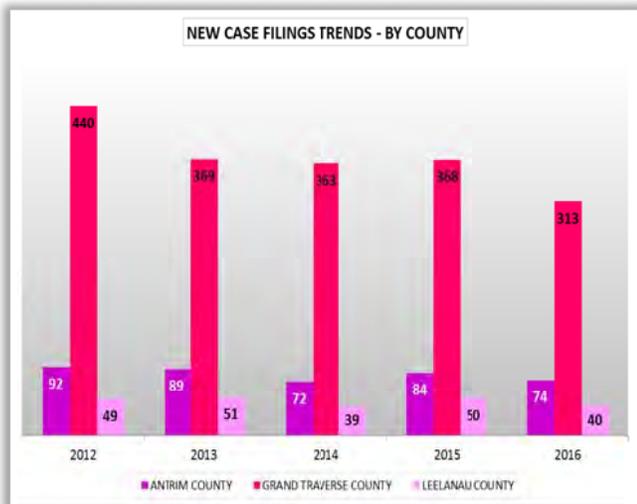

The Friend of the Court (FOC) assists the Circuit Court by providing enforcement of Court Orders relating to child support, health care, spousal support, and parenting time/custody and investigating, evaluating and submitting recommendations to the Court on contested domestic relations matters.

CASE MANAGEMENT

In 2016, the FOC office administered 5,882 open cases. While the Court granted 22 petitions to “opt out” of Friend of the Court services, 6 cases which had previously “opted out” of services were reopened in 2016. Throughout the year, the FOC staff processed 97 complaints for reimbursement of children’s extraordinary medical expenses, generated 153 stipulated orders for clients, conducted investigations and made recommendations for temporary orders in 343 cases and performed 671 reviews regarding child support and parenting time issues. Approximately 45% of the parenting time reviews resulted in an agreement by the parties.

NEW CASE FILINGS

There were 427 new cases opened with FOC in 2016, with 17.6% from Antrim County, 73.9% from Grand Traverse County and 11.5% from Leelanau County. Parties acting in propria persona represented themselves in 35% of the new cases filed. Of the preliminary custody orders generated by the Friend of the Court office, the mother was granted primary custody in nearly half of the cases filed, while 16% of the orders provided for split care, third-party care and cases where custody was reserved initially. Parties agreed to the new custody orders in 61% of the cases, while custody was determined by default in 6% of the cases.

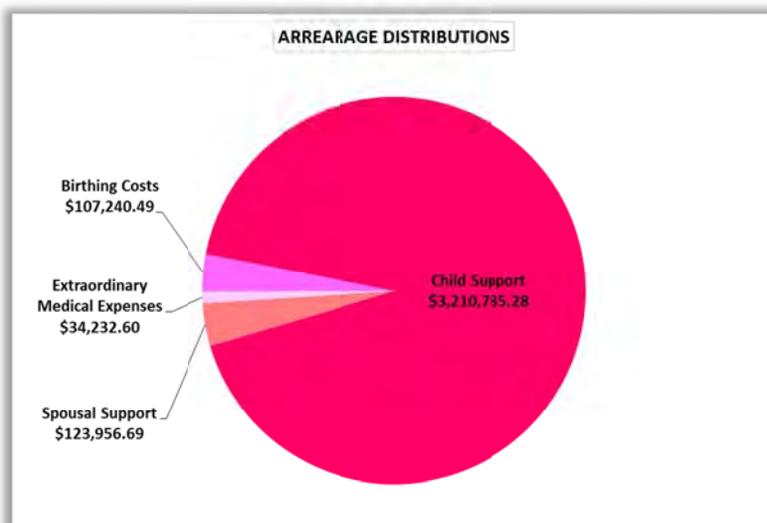

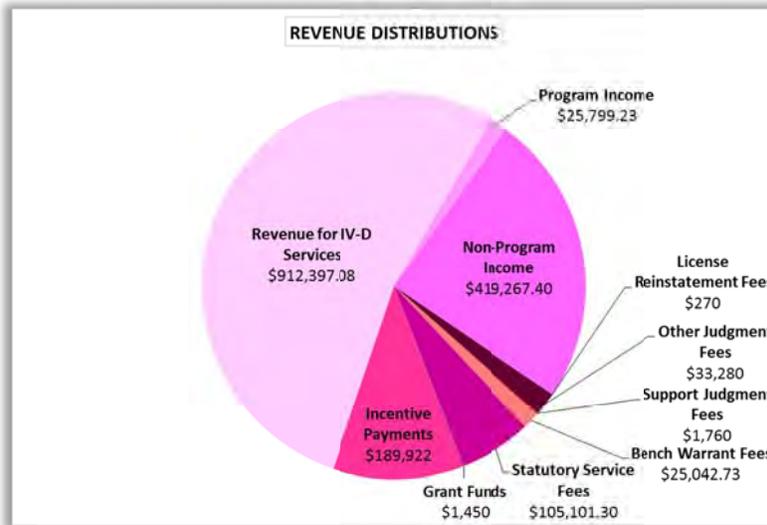

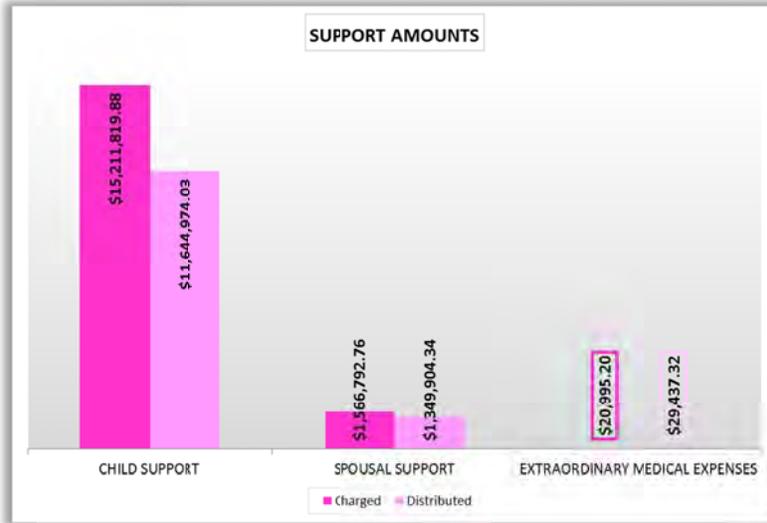

CHILD SUPPORT & PARENTING-TIME ENFORCEMENT

In 2016, the FOC issued 5,640 income withholding notices and served 1,132 enforcement notices. Enforcement notices advise payers of their delinquency and request they contact the FOC office to discuss their account and make payment arrangements. The FOC office also issued 5 notices of proposed suspension of drivers’ licenses. Drivers’ licenses for 3 non-compliant support obligors were actually suspended. Further, the FOC scheduled 1,204 support enforcement hearings. The office resolved 258 cases due to payment or establishment of successful income withholding and conducted hearings in the remaining 946 cases.

During 2016, a total of 957 warrants were issued in the Thirteenth Circuit. Of the warrants issued, 29% were in Antrim County, 61% were in Grand Traverse County and 10% were in Leelanau County. Failure to comply with a previously Court ordered payment plan led to 646 of the warrants issued and remaining warrants issued were for a party’s failure to appear. In 2016, 554 outstanding warrants were resolved by the FOC, typically due to arrangements for payment of child support, establishment of income withholding or posting of bond with the FOC office.

EXPENSES, REVENUE & SUPPORT

The Friend of the Court's total expenses for 2016 was $2,220,558.39. The FOC's total revenue, composed of support judgment fees, custody and parenting-time judgment fees, license reinstatement fees, support bench warrant fees, statutory service fees, grant funds, incentive payments, returns for IV-D services, program and non-program income, was $1,714,289.74. The total amount of support distributed in 2016 by the FOC, including child support, spousal support, extraordinary medical expenses and birthing costs, was $16,488,915.23. The total amount of support charged was $16,799,607.84. The arrearage accumulated for the year was $151,265.60.

FRIEND OF THE COURT SUMMARY – 2016

In 2016, the Family Support Court, a specialty court, served 24 individuals. The Family Support Court focuses on identifying a child support obligor's impediments to employment and then develops and executes a plan to minimize those impediments with the goal of employment and the payment of child support. Constant accountability, frequent review hearings with incentives and/or sanctions, and utilization of community resources are hallmarks of the program.

"SMILE," the Court's education program for divorcing parents, continued to assist families in 2016. SMILE is offered monthly at the Hall of Justice. There are day and evening sessions and registration for SMILE may be done electronically through the Friend of the Court website, located at www.13thcircuitcourt.org. For individuals unable to attend the scheduled sessions, there is now a complete video program available. In 2016, 244 parents attended the SMILE program.

Again in 2016, the Friend of the Court received Access and Visitation grant funding from the State Court Administrative Office. The collaborative and enduring relationship between the Friend of the Court office and Child and Family Services of Northwest Michigan allowed for supervised parenting time and safe parenting time exchanges for qualified families. In 2016, there were 70 families referred for supervised visits and exchanges.

The Friend of the Court continued working with and referring families to the local Conflict Resolution Service (CRS) for post-judgment mediation of custody and parenting time disputes, and the office persisted in offering voluntary mediation as an alternative dispute resolution measure.

Recognizing that approximately one-third of incoming cases involved never married parents, FOC developed, initiated and implemented an educational program for parents involved in paternity and family support cases. Cooperative co-parenting, communication and parenting styles are addressed with focus on children's needs, especially the need for both parents. Class size is small and led by an accomplished social worker with ample opportunity for discussions. In 2016, there were 117 parents who participated in the program.
