This Sale is being held in compliance with the General Property Tax Act, Public Act 206 of 1893, as amended. It is the responsibility of the prospective purchaser to do their own research as to the use of the land and any structures thereon, for their intended purpose and to make a personal inspection of the property and any structures on the ground to determine if it will be suitable for the purposes for which it is being purchased. The County Treasurer makes neither representations nor claims as to fitness for purpose, ingress/egress, conditions, covenants, or restrictions. Occupied structures may not be entered without the occupant's permission, and any secured vacant structures may not be entered. Ownership of the underlying gas and oil mineral rights on these properties may not have been extinguished by the judgment of foreclosures as set-forth in Comben V State of Michigan et al file # 02-7860-PS. It is the responsibility of bidder to do their own research as to the existence of any interest, liens or encumbrances, whether they have been cancelled by the foreclosure judgment or incurred after the entry of the foreclosure judgment. Accordingly the County of Antrim and County Treasurer is not conveying any interest in the underlying gas and oil mineral rights and does reserves unto the County of Antrim and County Treasurer all interest and title to underlying gas and oil mineral rights. Upon payment of the full purchase price, the purchaser assumes the full risk of loss and shall be solely responsible for the protecting its interest in the property, including and not limited to obtaining insurance. Additionally, purchaser is responsible for contacting local units of government to prevent possible demolition of structures situated on parcels. All property taxes and special assessments that became due and payable after March 31, 2015 will be the responsibility of the successful purchaser.
