EXPLORE

Antrim County

... a land of experiences

Leave the hustle and bustle of city life behind and venture into Antrim County, and explore northern Michigan naturally.

Water - There is world-class fly fishing on the Jordan River, kayaking on the Chain of Lakes, charter fishing on Grand Traverse Bay, and boating on Torch Lake.

Trails - The Glacial Hills Pathway & Natural Area has over 30 miles for exploring, and the Iron Belle Trail runs right through our Jordan River Valley.

Amenities - The 5 main villages offer dining options from traditional to trendy. Lodging ranges from bed and breakfasts to rustic camping to resort possibilities. See specifics at our chambers of commerce.

Winter - Offers downhill skiing, snowmobiling, cross-country skiing, fat tire biking, snowshoeing, and ice fishing.

Don't forget the agritourism, birdwatching, "Walk of Art", exciting nightlife and much more!
